

This Special Industry Group (SIG) for Aerospace & Defense (A&D) will re-launch with this face-to-face meeting to discuss industry needs and direction, and to work towards industry goals as a multi-organizational volunteer team. Please join us on Monday, February 22nd to participate in the working group. The agenda will include charter and history of the SIG, development of industry events, and open discussion on:

- Past Strategic Initiatives
- Stay the course - repurpose the SIG
- Update the Charter if Needed
- Participant Vote on Industry Needs
- Action Items
- Recommendations

The A&D SIG is the longest running industry group in the Supply Chain Council and has initiated SCOR projects that dramatically influenced change in the framework, including the addition of the RETURN process. This meeting is intended to continue this tradition.
